

② DSS & IT stands for Decision Support System.
It is a computerised system that gathers and analyze data, synthesizing it to produce comprehensive information report. It differs from an ordinary operations application, whose function is just to collect data.